

SPOT THE DIFFERENCE UNIFORMS - A COMPARISON EXERCISE

First World War uniforms were based on the style of a country gentleman whereas Second World War uniforms were more practical and based on ski wear. Look for the missing item on the image and compare the top three First World War uniforms with those from the Second World War.

The _____ is missing. What is the poster trying to get the man to do?

Why does he not have to be in a uniform? _____

The _____ are missing. These supported the legs. This tells you that Soldiers in the First World War ...

The _____ is missing. This tells you she served in the _____.

What can you say about her, as she was able to volunteer for the war? _____

The _____ is missing. This tells you he was a _____.

Look at him, why do you think he was still on the home front? _____

The _____ are missing. Listen to the Lieutenant from the Royal Scots Greys. Modern technology such as tanks meant that soldiers no longer wore puttees to support the legs because _____.

The _____ is missing from the car. Why was this job dangerous? _____

What changes can you identify between women in the First and Second World War? _____
