

How To Draw... The British Hotel!

Mary Seacole travelled to the Crimea to set up The British Hotel. Soldiers could visit Mary's Hotel to buy new boots, medicines, magazines, and a hot meal. All of these things helped to make the soldiers feel more comfortable. Have a go at drawing The British Hotel.

Marvellous Mary Seacole!

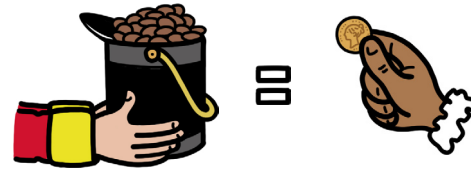

Mary Seacole's British Hotel had different things available for soldiers to buy. If you were a soldier in the Crimea - what do you think you would choose to buy and why?

Money in the Victorian times was different to the money we use today.

A Penny - 1d A Shilling - 1s A Pound - £1

There were 240 pennies in an old pound...

...and 12 pennies in a shilling.

During the Victorian times, the lowest ranking soldier would be paid around 1 shilling a day, with money deducted for his meals.

A week's wage would be around 4 shillings and 8 pence.
