

National Army Museum

Royal Hospital Road, Chelsea, London SW3 4HT

Exhibitions Department

Post: Museum and Exhibition Designer (Part time) Post No: NAM 207

Person Specification

CRITERIA	STANDARD	E/D	EVIDENCE
Qualifications	Educated to Degree level (or equivalent) in 3D, spatial or interior design	D	Certificate
Previous experience required	Demonstrable experience of producing high quality creative concepts. Experience and clear understanding of different production methods and materials. Experience of working creatively within the confines of a design identity. Demonstrable experience of designing museum exhibitions. Experience of producing detailed design specifications and briefs for the build of design concepts.	E	Application and Interview
	Experience of working collaboratively with graphic designers. Experience/an understanding of diverse styles of designs, trends, and best practice of design within the workplace.	D	Application and Interview
Attainments/skills/competencies	Strong conceptual and spatial skills with a proven creative approach, a keen eye for detail. Ability to work for periods on own initiative while understanding the importance of liaison and proactive communication and collaborative working across departments. A flexible approach to work, and the ability to prioritise, meet deadlines and work on a number of different projects at one time.	E	Application and Interview

	Well-developed interpersonal and communication skills. Excellent resource, project, time and budget management skills. Excellent attention to detail. Advanced InDesign, PhotoShop, SketchUp and Illustrator skills. Computer literacy, including knowledge of MS Word, Excel and PowerPoint.	E
	Video editing skills using Adobe Premier Pro or similar.	D	Application & Interview

National Army Museum
January 2019